What our customers have to say about our services:

Luck brought me to Emma! I have worked in the film industry for the past several years and always has food been the top priority. Recently I was coordinating for an Oscar Award Winning Director and his crew as they scouted the area for their upcoming feature. Emma helped me customize healthy food for our traveling groups of over 50 people. She was able to work with my budget and provide some amazing choices such as Brisket wraps, Salmon dishes, and elegant chopped salads. She even brought over complementary platters for the director days in advance. (The timing was fabulous as it coincided with a meeting he was having with the writer and other producers. I was able to cater the meeting and have the director impress his guests.) Any day of scouting for film crews is hectic and stressful, the last thing I needed was for the crew to come back hungry. For the rest of the week everyone complemented the food. Not only did they rave about the meals but the coordinators on the scout said how easy it was that she personalized each one with names – no one was left out or forgotten and distribution was a breeze! I keep Emma's number on me at all times and frequently give it out to anyone who talks about the hassle of food planning for productions. --An astonished fan, Charlotte Rapak. Production Secretary, "FROST/NIXON", Universal Films

Emma, Thank you so much for our 15th Annual Memorial, I and the staff agree that this was the best of all. Of course we did not think you could top last year but you surprised us all, the staff as well as a lot of the guest in attended are still raving about your food. Everything was simply elegant and the food was mouth watering, melt in your mouth and we did not know it was that many desserts that you could choose from. As usual you and your staff were very kind and professional. --With heartfelt thanks, Mary Louise Winston, Pres., House of Winston Mortuary, Los Angeles

The eleven dozen cupcakes you sent to my daughter's sorority house at USC yesterday were a tremendous hit! The girls loved them and, as we suspected, the red velvet cupcakes were the ones of choice. While I did not get to see them myself, my daughter reported that the birthday decorations on the cupcakes looked beautiful and she has thus kept the ones with the letters of her name for herself (I'm sure they are disappearing, one by one...) I am delighted to report that the girls preferred your cupcakes to those from that famous Beverly Hills shop that they are familiar with--so I would expect that you will be receiving more orders from the sorority in the future. Thanks, again, for everything. You have been a pleasure to deal with and my order with you was a great success!

--With best regards, R. Feinstein

Hi Emma, Everything went really well. The sandwiches were delicious and yes, I loved the surprise. My staff was impressed with the elegant way with packaging. Every detail was noticed. The cupcakes were a hit. We had extra boxes but they disappeared before I could get my hands on another one to take home. By the way, the ham in the ham sandwiches was wonderful...way better than I would expect. The food was a success in all ways...the students liked them, we like the ease of how they were packed so they can be distributed, the cupcakes were a wonderful treat. The delivery service was wonderful, on time, very nice and did a wonderful job unloading. He was so good I tipped him a little extra! We'll be in touch! --Regards, Betty, Event Coordinator, California Institute of the Arts

Emma, your cupcake are crazy, stupid goood, you can't eat just one.
